

Instruções – Sublime

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the Sublime Text 2 download page. The browser's address bar shows the URL www.sublimetext.com/2. The page has a navigation bar with links: Home, Download, Buy, Blog, Forum, and Support. The main heading is "Sublime Text 2" followed by a "Download" subheading. The text states: "The current version of Sublime Text 2 is 2.0.2." Below this, it says: "Sublime Text 3 is currently in beta, and contains many improvements over Sublime Text 2." A list of download links follows:

- OS X (OS X 10.6 or later is required)
- Windows - also available as a portable version
- Windows 64 bit - also available as a portable version
- Linux 32 bit
- Linux 64 bit

Below the list, a paragraph states: "Sublime Text 2 may be downloaded and evaluated for free, however a license must be obtained for continued use. There is currently no enforced time limit for the evaluation." At the bottom of the page, it says: "For the latest news and new versions, follow sublimehq on twitter."

A yellow callout box with a speech bubble icon contains the text: "Para começar a instalação, clique sobre ele." (To start the installation, click on it.)
